HON. HENRY WULFF.

Republican Candidate for State Treasurer.
From the Chicago Inter Ocean.

Mr. Wulff is a well-known Republican in every ward in the city of Chicago, and in every village of the county towns out of the city. His eight years of consecutive service as County Clerk has given him a circle of personal acquaintance such as not many of the campaigners have attracted to them.

Henry Wulff is a native of Germany, having been born in Meldorf, August 24, 1854. In the year 1883, he came with his father, the late Claus Wulff, to this country. At first their home was in Chicago, but later Mr. Wulff, Sr., removed to the town of Jefferson, just northwest of the city, and there he made his home. Young Henry attended the public schools of Jefferson, and when he grew older he came into the city and was a student in Hyerburgh's College. He devoted himself for some years to mercantile pursuits and was successful beyond his expectations. In the Town of Jefferson (now a part of Chicago, comprising the Twenty-seventh Ward, and a small portion of the Fifteenth Ward), Mr. Wulff was elected Trustee for six years, or three terms, and served two years as President of the Board of Trustees. In November, 1886, he was elected County Clerk of Cook County, and in 1890 he was renominated and re-elected. At the election of the latter year the entire Republican county ticket was defeated, except as to two of the candidates, and Mr. Wulff was one of the two. That was the year when Mr. Amberg was the Republican candidate for State Treasurer, and, although Mr. Amberg was a popular man, Mr. Wulff ran 4,603 ahead of him in Cook County. Mr. Wulff's vote was from 2,000 to 10,000 above that of the leading candidates who were with him on the Republican ticket. A significant fact that should be borne in mind is that Mr. Wulff is the only County Clerk ever re-elected in Cook County. It must be added also that he was never defeated for any office for which he was ever nominated. Mr. Wulff was a delegate to the National Republican Convention in Minneapolis. He has a number of prosperous business interests, and is a member of several leading benevolent societies and orders. Mr. Wulff is a self-made man. He is a tireless worker and an effective campaigner. His management of the Cook County Clerk's office for the past eight years has been typical of the man: capable and clean.

Neither of his two rivals, Atkins and Tracy, received as many votes in the country districts, which is a good omen for Mr. Wulff.—Alton Telegraph.

Henry Wulff is one of the ablest and best known men in Chicago, and has a wide acquaintance throughout the State. His ability and integrity are everywhere recognized.—Beardstown Star.

His nomination means 10,000 more Republican votes for the Republican party in Cook county than it could otherwise secure.—Aurora Beacon.

The fact that Henry Wulff received more votes outside of Cook county than he did in it for nomination for State Treasurer, should go a long way toward dispelling the Democratic delusion that he is not a strong candidate outside of Chicago.—Rockford Republican.

Henry Wulff, the nominee for State Treasurer, is one of the ablest and best known men of Chicago and has a wide acquaintance throughout the State.—Quincy Whig.

The nomination of Henry Wulff is worth at least 10,000 votes to the whole Republican ticket in Cook County, and thousands are more throughout the State.—Springfield Journal.

Henry Wulff's nomination for State Treasurer from Cook County will add 10,000 votes to the Republican ticket there, and help insure the election of a Republican County Judge, with all that implies for the purification of Chicago politics.—Peoria Transcript.

With Wulff to bring Chicago and Northern Illinois into line, with Cullom to unite the workers of Central Illinois, and with Ingalls to gather the Egyptians of Southern Illinois around the Republican banner, there need be no fear of Mistah MacVeagh, Barney Claggett, and Henry Raab.—Mendota Bulletin.

We fought Wulff energetically before his nomination, as any Republican had a right to do; but we ceased fighting him the moment the roll call in the convention was ended, as all Republicans should have done; and we are working for him, and every man on the ticket, and desire to see him elected.—Freeport Journal (Smith D. Atkins).

It is stated by authorities entitled to credence that two-fifths of the entire area of the United States consists of arid land, and that upon six hundred and sixteen million acres of this land crops could be raised if water were supplied.

We cannot be too proud of our West Point cadets. They are progressing finely in the art of slugging. It is cheerful to know, however, that that cadet who was required to chew his tent pole was blacked the eye of the student warrior who ordered him to do it. Chewing a tent pole may be necessary to the military education of an American officer, but it is well that he should show some spirit.

There is hope for the coming generation. It is predicted that our grandchildren will not have hands large enough to reach an octave on the piano.
